

Middle East Is Top Subject of Bermuda Talks

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

TUCKERS TOWN, Bermuda (AP) — President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Macmillan assigned top priority to the Middle East crisis including Suez and Egyptian-Israeli problems, at the opening of their formal negotiations today.

The session opened in the drawing room of the Mid-Ocean Club, where chiefs of the two governments met with advisers at a circular conference table.

Real start of the top level quest for full-scale restoration of the British-American partnership in world affairs began at a three-hour dinner last night, however, when the President and Prime Minister and secretaries of state reviewed world issues.

As a result of the globe circling talk, the Middle East crisis was put first as a topic of discussion with good prospect that it will come up also at later times during the conference which continues through Saturday.

While no announcement was made, it seemed probable that second session for discussion would be Britain's plans for cut-backs in its world-wide military commitments.

American officials foresaw a serious possibility the United States may have to make new commitments of its own to keep the free world's military guard up.

A meeting of U. S. and British defense plans was assured a high place on the agenda, as was the tangle of urgent Middle East issues.

Public Meet on City Manager Plan

All residents are invited to attend a special public meeting tonight at 7:30 at Hope City Hall at which time the proposed City Management form of government will be discussed.

Principal speaker will be Charles F. Spencer, president of East Central State College of Ada, Oklahoma, who is considered an expert on the city manager plan. Mr. Spencer will also answer questions which anyone might have.

Movement for the city manager plan of government will probably hinge on the interest shown by the public.

Wage Dispute Holds Up Super Highway Plans

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The start of Arkansas' $33-million-dollar super highway program has been called off because of a dispute between the state and federal government over wage scales.

Contracts scheduled for awarding next Wednesday have been dropped, state Highway Director Herbert Eldridge said. The projects involved construction of two bridges on the Little Rock-Benton route of U. S. Highway 67-70.

The snag in the federal aid program — which provides $9 of federal money for each $1 Arkansas spends on certain highways — was the provision for federal establishment of wage scales on highway jobs.

William J. Smith, attorney for the Associated General Contractors of Arkansas, said yesterday that Department of Labor Day schedules were out of line with current rates paid by contractors in Arkansas.

Eldridge said that if the Highway Department accepts "wages that are out of line," that sets a precedent for every other road job in Arkansas.

The state's congressional delegation reportedly will be asked to intervene for the state so that the Highway Department can begin spending the federal aid funds.

Organizations which might send representatives to Washington for talks with Arkansas lawmakers reportedly included the AGC, Highway Department, Arkansas Municipal League and Arkansas County Judges Association.

As an instance of one wage difference, Eldridge cited the Department of Labor scale for the skilled laborer at $1.65 hourly compared to the going wage in the state of 1.25 or $1.30 for the same position.

Smith said state contractors had sent the Department of Labor 90 certified pay rolls from 75 different projects which would serve as a basis for determining the prevailing wage rate in the state. The Department of Labor scale is supposed to be patterned after an area's prevailing rates.

Dag Launches Talk With Egyptians

CAIRO (AP) — U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld today began talks with top Egyptian officials in an effort to speed agreement on operation of the Suez Canal and to ease Arab-Israeli tensions still threatening the Middle East with violence.

Arriving in Cairo after midnight by plane, Hammarskjöld talked with his aides, rested briefly at his hotel and then went to see Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi.

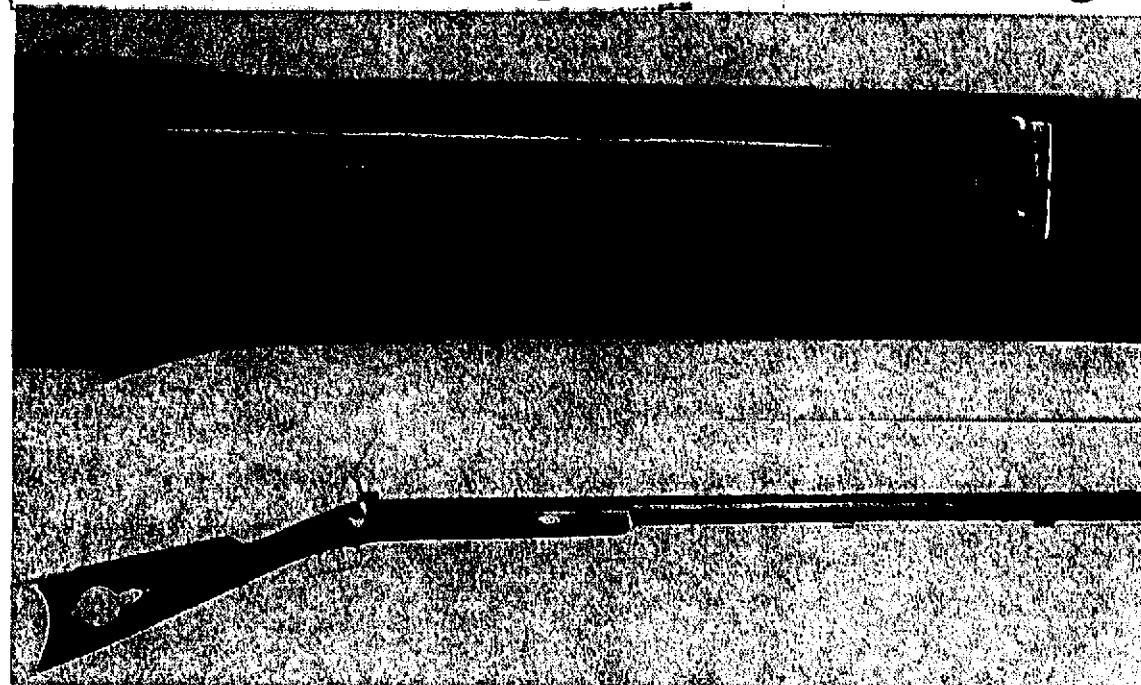

The secretary general was to call on President Nasser later. Egypt was expected to balk at the plea Hammarskjöld reportedly will make for an Egyptian-Israeli proclamation of nonbelligerence.

It was believed Hammarskjöld would call for such pledges as a major curb against renewed warfare and that Israel would agree to go along. The Israelis have said all along they are ready to talk peace with their Arab neighbors.

The Arab allies of the 1948 Palestine War have refused to talk peace with the Israelis. They have said the continuing technical state of war as a basis for their economic boycott of Israel and their refusal to let Israeli ships use the Suez Canal and the Gulf of Aqaba. There appeared little hope Egypt would modify that position in the current talks with Hammarskjöld.

The secretary general was smiling as he stepped from the plane that brought him on his fifth visit to Egypt in little more than a year. He declined to make any statement to reporters.

Continued Tax Rate Finds House Backing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) said today House leaders have agreed to go along with a plan to increase from a year to 15 months an extension of present rates on corporation and excise taxes.

In view of this, Byrd told a reporter, the Finance Committee heads undoubtedly will vote for the longer extension to July 1, 1938. The House already has voted an extension to April 1, 1938. Unless Congress acts, the business tax rates will drop April 1, cutting revenue three billion dollars a year.

Byrd said the longer extension would have the advantage of making the tax dates correspond with the government's fiscal years, which start July 1, so that, if we ever can cut taxes, we would know just now it could affect the revenue.

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey told the Finance Committee he could have no objection to the 15-month extension provided it did not delay final action on the bill beyond March 31.

Byrd said House leaders had told him they would accept the change without a conference. This would mean the measure could be sent to the White House before the deadline if the Senate acts by the middle of next week.

Present corporation rates include a 3 per cent normal tax on earnings up to $25,000, and a 22 per cent surtax on all the rest for a total of 52 per cent.

Operation Separates Twin Girls

By FRANK CAREY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government scientists have told of a possibly historic operation in which they separated twin baby girls who had been joined at the forehead.

The Touse Appropriations Committee, which made public the story today, was told this was the first operation of his kind in which, at least until the present time, both twins have survived.

Dr. Pearce Bailey, director of the National Institute of Neurological Diseases and Blindness, gave the account of the intricate operation performed last December on Virginia Kate and Teresa Kay Bunton of Mountain City, Tenn. The twins then were 4 months old.

Today, a little over three months after the operation, the twins were reported in good health. They still are at the clinical center of the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, Md., where the surgery was performed.

There have been a number of cases where Siamese twins, joined at the head, were separated only to have at least one of the twins die. One of the most famous of these cases involved the Bradie twins of Chicago. Rodney Bradie survived, but Roger Lee, his twin brother, died after 34 days.

Bailey, testifying on appropriations requests of the Public Health Service, told the committee: "The only remedy — the only hope of salvation of the twins themselves — was surgical separation. They could not have lived, even in this age of antibiotics, linked together as they were."

The twins were first brought to NIH in October. For a little more than two months they were the subject of studies aimed at exploring the possibility of separating them and at finding out what brought about the abnormality.

Among the collector's items in B. W. Edwards' gallery of old guns and side-arms is this half-stock, muzzle-loading Kentucky rifle of about .36 caliber — and it was made right here in Hope by a well-known gunsmith of a generation ago.

Fred Schinnerer was the gunsmith, and his shop was on the site now occupied by Hope Post Office.

Born in Germany in 1846 Schinnerer came to America at an early age. He worked for a gunsmith in Memphis, then set up his own shop at Prescott, and in 1891 moved his shop to Hope. He occupied the local post office site until about 1911, when it became necessary to move because of the pending post office construction. And there he died July 28, 1917.

Mr. Edwards bought the old gun from the late Ed Lee of near Blevins, whose father had purchased it new from the gunsmith.

Homeowners Alerted to Spring Rackets

B. N. Holt, Manager of the Hope Chamber of Commerce, alerted residents of Hope today against Spring Rackets which plague homeowners.

Citing a bulletin from the National Better Business Bureau, with which the Chamber is affiliated, Mr. Holt stated that a small group of questionable operators take advantage of spring weather to perpetrate various hoaxes on the unsuspecting public. These gyps who constitute only a small minority of the various trades and industries in which they engage, have long been a persistent source of public complaint.

Phony "tree surgeons," hawkers of fake "humus" or lawn dressings, bogus "termite experts" and fake "roofing experts" are types of itinerant swindlers who may approach the homeowners in the spring.

Homeowners should be on the alert for transient roofers, a well known ringer of doorbells during the spring months. He parks his truck, complete with ladders and tar post, outside the householders' gate. He states that he has just finished another job down the street and has some materials left over. He will be pleased to inspect the householder's roof and chimney. No charge, of course.

If he gets a green light, he will climb atop the house, and come back down shaking his head mournfully. The roof, and/or chimney, he states, is in terrible shape. However, since he has his truck and spare materials right there, he will do the job for a small fraction of the usual price.

If the homeowner agrees, the roofer and his assistants will do an inferior job — at an exorbitant price. They may even damage a roof that needed no repair in the first place.

Citizens are also warned against offers of combination storm windows and doors at extremely low prices. A minority of unscrupulous firms in the field, use these offers as "bait" and then try to switch the homeowner to a more expensive job.

Conway Co. to Hire Appraisal Firm for Taxes

MEMPHIS (AP) — Employment of a firm of professional appraisers to determine the value of all property in Conway county as the basis for a 20 per cent tax assessment has been ordered by County Judge Edgar Gordon.

Judge Gordon appointed Dr. H. M. Mobley, A. J. Meadors, and R. W. Morgan Jr., to enter into negotiations for the employment of a firm of qualified professional appraisers. The court order followed a public hearing yesterday, attended by more than 300 citizens.

The judge announced he had received letters signed by approximately 300 persons asking for employment of an appraiser, and none taking the opposite view.

Labor Bureau Feels Bite of Budget Cutters

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee took another big strike today in its budget-cutting drive by recommending reductions of $114,926,700 in new funds requested for the Labor and Welfare departments and related agencies.

It urged the House to appropriate $2,081,277,881 for the fiscal year starting next July 1 instead of the 2,081,277,881 requested by President Eisenhower.

The major part of the cut was in funds for public assistance grants to states, for which the committee voted $79,400,000 below the amount requested, but 25 millions more than was appropriated for the current year.

The over-all cut of almost 4 per cent brought to about 800 million dollars reductions recommended by the committee this year in five annual appropriation bills involving presidential requests for about $13,400,000,000.

Bills involving request for about 60 billion dollars more still are in the House Appropriations Committee.

The money allotted in today's bill included $2,487,694,581 for the Health, Education and Welfare Department, a $94,430,000 cut; $304,368,300 for the Labor Department, a 20,311,700 cut; $9450 for the National Labor Relations Board, a $125,000 reduction; $1,295,000 for the National Mediation Board, no cut; $3,550,000 for the Mediation and Conciliation Service, a $60,000 cut; and the entire 5,000 requested for the Interstate Commerce Commission on the Potomac River Basin.

Largest item in the Labor Department budget was 202 million dollars for grants to states for unemployment compensation and employment service administration.

The National Institutes of Health, which operate within the Welfare Department, received the entire $220,183,000 requested. For general expenses, the Social Security Administration was granted 130 millions, a reduction of only one million.

Importance of Polio Vaccine Is Stressed

Dr. C. Lynn Harris was the guest speaker at the Spring Home Demonstration Council Meeting, March 20, at the W. O. W. Hall in Hope. Dr. Harris spoke on the Doctor's Campaign against Polio pointing out the importance of every one, especially through the age of 40, taking the Salk Vaccine.

During the business meeting, it was decided to carry as a long time project a scholarship fund to help some worthy girl at the University of Arkansas who is interested in majoring in Home Economics to become a Home Demonstration Agent.

Other business discussed included election of delegates to attend the Recreational and Rural Arts workshop to be held at Camp Couchdale in June. Delegates elected were Mrs. Lester Clark, Liberty Hill; Mrs. Pauline Saunders, Melrose; Mrs. Leslie Huckabee, Spring Hill; and Mrs. Elston Willis, Victory. Alternate elected were Mrs. Glenon Huckabee, Melrose; Mrs. J. C. Collier, Centerville; and Mrs. Eldridge Fontby, Hinton. It was also voted to hold future council meetings in the various communities in the county with Columbus Club extending an invitation for the June Council meeting.

Choose ye this day, Mark 10: 17-23 was the devotional brought by Mrs. Ernest Graham, Hopewell Home Demonstration Club. Mrs. J. E. Delaney, Columbus read a paper on Easter Symbols telling of the origin of the Easter bunny, Easter eggs, hot cross buns, and the Easter candles.

Two films, "Figure Forum," the selection of foundation garments and "Truly Yours," the alteration of ready-made dresses, were shown by Mrs. Lorraine B. Wylie, Home Demonstration Agent. Group singing was led by Mrs. Howard Reese, Shover Springs, and Mrs. William Schooley, Victory, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Cash of Victory.

The following clubs were present: Centerville, Columbus, Green Easter, Hinton, Hopewell, Melrose, McCaskill, Rocky Mount, Spring Hill, Shover Springs and Victory. Visitors were Mrs. O. T. Beck, Mrs. Ella Lester, and Mrs. Paul Dugney, Washington, and Mrs. Jeff Hartfield and Mrs. Wayward Burke, DeAnn.

Green Easter Home Demonstration Club served as hostess club for the pot luck lunch at noon.

Differences Over Millwood Project Appear Settled

Centerville Plans a Singing Sunday

Centerville will hold a community singing service Sunday, March 24 at 2 p. m. Everyone is urged to attend by Syd Skinner, chairman.

It struck out of a pending bill a provision to require that the proposed Millwood Reservoir in Arkansas and seven upstream dams in the two states be started together.

Rep. Harris (D-Ark.) said he was highly gratified at the committee's action and added that, if the bill becomes law, the way would be clear for a start on the Millwood Reservoir.

The estimated cost of Millwood and the seven upstream reservoirs is $103,035,000.

When originally authorized Millwood was to have been a high dam. However, upstream groups in western Arkansas and eastern Oklahoma protested, saying Millwood should be made smaller and additional dams built upstream.

Last year Army engineers proposed to reduce the Millwood capacity by 25 per cent and to build seven upstream dams, three in Arkansas and four in Oklahoma. All dams would provide water supply storage and some would include power.

This proposal was approved by House and Senate committees but Harris and Sen. Korr (D-Okl.) differed on which dam should be started first.

Harris said Millwood logically should be started first. However, Oklahoma groups apparently feared that if Millwood were built first it would attract the bulk of new industry seeking water supply and the upstream dams might not be built.

Key provision in the bill last year provided that all seven would have to be started concurrently. President Eisenhower subsequently vetoed the bill, so it came back to Congress this year. The Senate committee recently approved the bill virtually in the same form it passed last year but did knock out the Millwood proviso.

The car containing seven passengers enroute home from a dance pavilion at nearby Benjou, Minn., sheared off a power pole and plunged into a water-filled ditch. Schultz apparently was killed by the crash. Haugen apparently was killed when he stepped out of the car into the water charged by the broken power line in it.

Im being shocked, somebody help me," a survivor quoted Haugen as saying. The other six passengers stayed inside the car.

The car containing Duncan and Rolf drew up. The two youths, apparently unaware of the lethal current in the pool of water, raced into it to help. Both fell dead.

Highway patrolmen said two passengers in the back seat of the Duncan-Rolf car apparently owed their lives to the fact they couldn't get out of the car as fast as they are Roger Offenbacher, 18, and Howard Hopke, 18, both of Fosson.

Then Clark Holldahl, 21, drove up in a third car, raced to the stricken auto before others could stop him, and met the same fate. The six youngsters tumbled in the wrecked car then climbed to the top of it and leaped to dry ground and safety.

Youthful Gang Make Chicago Headlines

CHICAGO (AP) — Teen-age gang now are producing Chicago headlines of the same type the adult mobsters did in the past.

The headlines are over stories of crimes of violence — such as the recent slayings of a boy in a hammer attack and a man in a motel robbery.

There's no use burying our heads in the sand," comments Walter Devereux, chief investigator of the Chicago Crime Commission. This city is not safe to roam in and its getting worse.

But the juvenile division of the Police Department says that, on the basis of the current rate for 1937, will be much higher than 1936.

During 1936 there were 12,439 cases noted by the division. The statistics included: larceny of automobiles, 747; burglary, 614; robberies (mostly strong arm), 229.

The bulk of the others were in the minor class. The record shows that 4,845 of the complaints were handled by

Another Union Chief Must Reveal Records

By HAMILTON W. FARON

WASHINGTON (AP) — A second Teamsters Union official faced today the choice of giving senators his personal financial records or having them taken from him.

Senate racketeers investigators said last night they will subpoena the records of Frank W. Brewster, West Coast Teamsters boss, unless he surrenders them voluntarily. Asked yesterday to produce the record, Brewster said he wanted to consult his lawyers first.

Brewster's boss, Union President Dave Beck, agreed yesterday to bring his own records before the Senate committee investigating labor-management activities. He was ordered to appear next Tuesday for preliminary questioning.

Beck notified the committee that he recognized the authority of the group to call him and that he would appear and bring with him the records, "without prejudice to my rights under the Constitution and the Bill of Rights."

While Beck agreed to produce his records, he did not say he would turn them over to the committee. The hearing, now in its fourth week, started out with testimony linking Teamsters officials with vice operations in Portland. Witnesses said the officials tried to take over law enforcement in the city.

Middle East Is Top Subject of Bermuda Talks

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

TUCKERS TOWN, Bermuda (U.P.) President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Macmillan assigned top priority to the Middle East crisis including Suez and Egyptian-Israeli problems, at the opening of their formal negotiations today.

The session opened in the drawing room of the Mid-Ocean Club, where chiefs of the two governments met with advisers at a circular conference table.

Real start of the top level quest for fullscale restoration of the British-American partnership in world affairs began at a three-hour dinner last night, however, when the President and Prime Minister and secretaries of state reviewed world issues.

As a result of the globe circling talk, the Middle East crisis was put first as a topic of discussion with good prospect that it will come up also at later times during the conference which continues through Saturday.

While no announcement was made, it seemed probable that second session for discussion would be Britain's plans for cutbacks in its world-wide military commitments.

American officials foresaw a serious possibility the United States may have to make new commitments of its own to keep the free world's military guard up.

A meshing of U. S. and British defense plans was assured a high place on the agenda, as was the tangle of urgent Middle East issues.

Principal speaker will be Charles F. Spencer, president of East Central State College of Ada, Oklahoma, who is considered an expert on the city manager plan. Mr. Spencer will also answer questions which anyone might have.

Movement for the city manager plan of government will probably hinge on the interest shown by the public.

Wage Dispute Holds Up Super Highway Plans

LITTLE ROCK (U.P.) The start of Arkansas' $3-million-dollar super highway program has been called off because of a dispute between the state and federal government over wage scales.

Contracts scheduled for awarding next Wednesday have been dropped, state Highway Director Herbert Eldridge said. The projects involved construction of two bridges on the Little Rock-Benton route of U. S. Highway 67-70.

The snag in the federal aid program — which provides $9 of federal money for each $1 Arkansas spends on certain highways — was the provision for federal establishment of wage scales on highway jobs.

William J. Smith, attorney for the Associated General Contractors of Arkansas, said yesterday that Department of Labor Day schedules were out of line with current rates paid by contractors in Arkansas.

Eldridge said that if the Highway Department accepts "wages that are out of line," that sets a precedent for every other road job in Arkansas.

The state's congressional delegation reportedly will be asked to intervene for the state so that the Highway Department can begin spending the federal aid funds.

Organizations which might send representatives to Washington for talks with Arkansas lawmakers reportedly included the AGC, Highway Department, Arkansas Municipal League and Arkansas County Judges Association.

As an instance of one wage difference, Eldridge cited the Department of Labor scale for an oiler at $1.85 hourly compared to the going wage in the state of 1.25 or $1.30 for the same position.

Smith said state contractors had sent the Department of Labor 90 certified pay rolls from 75 different projects which would serve as a basis for determining the prevailing wage rate in the state. The Department of Labor scale is supposed to be patterned after an area's prevailing rates.

Dag Launches Talk With Egyptians

CAIRO (U.P.) — U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld today began talks with top Egyptian officials in an effort to speed agreement on operation of the Suez Canal and to ease Arab-Israeli tensions still threatening the Middle East with violence.

Arriving in Cairo after midnight by plane, Hammarskjöld talked with his aides, rested briefly at his hotel and then went to see Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi.

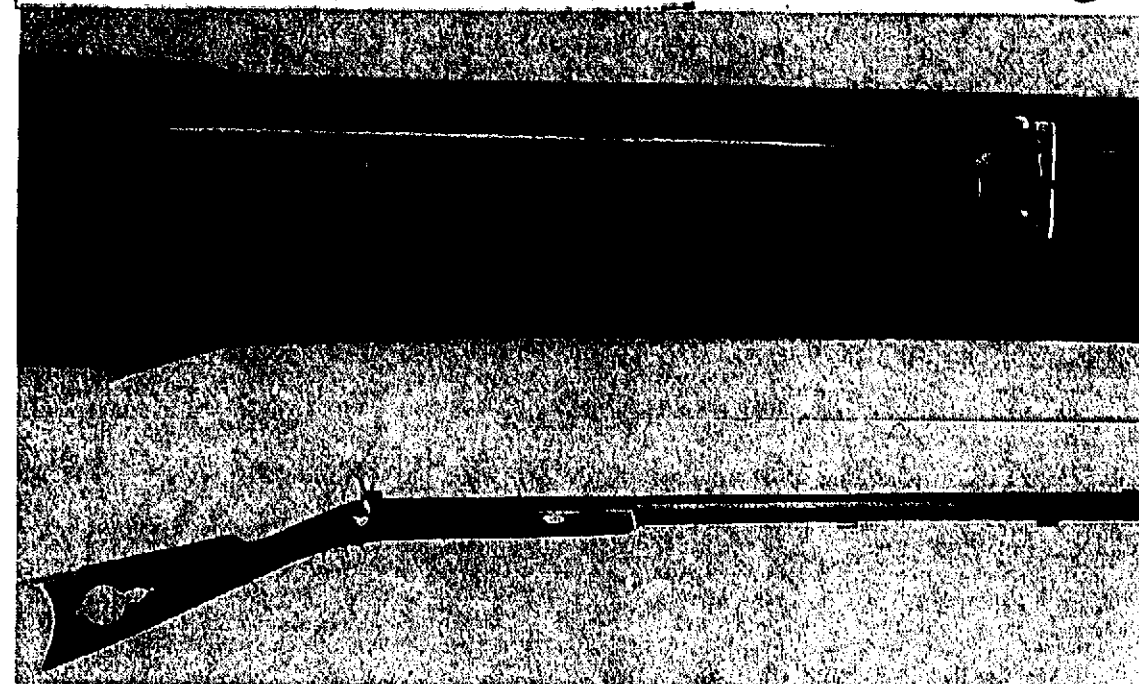

The secretary general was to call on President Nasser later. Egypt was expected to balk at the plea Hammarskjöld reportedly will make for an Egyptian-Israeli proclamation of nonbelligerence.

It was believed Hammarskjöld would call for such pledges as a major curb against renewed warfare and that Israel would agree to go along. The Israelis have said all along they are ready to talk peace with their Arab neighbors.

The Arab allies of the 1948 Palestine War have refused to talk peace with the Israelis. They have used the continuing technical state of war as a basis for their economic boycott of Israel and their refusal to let Israeli ships use the Suez Canal and the Gulf of Aqaba. There appeared little hope Egypt would modify that position in the current talks with Hammarskjöld.

The secretary general was smiling as he stepped from the plane that brought him on his fifth visit to Egypt in little more than a year. He declined to make any statement to reporters.

Gun Made in Hope Generation Ago

Among the collector's items in B. W. Edwards' gallery of old guns and side-arms is this half-stock, muzzle-loading Kentucky rifle of about .36 caliber — and it was made right here in Hope by a well-known gunsmith of a generation ago.

Fred Schinnerer was the gunsmith, and his shop was on the site now occupied by Hope Post Office.

Born in Germany in 1845 Schinnerer came to America at an early age. He worked for a gunsmith in Memphis, then set up his own shop at Prescott, and in 1891 moved his shop to Hope. He occupied the local post office site until about 1911, when it became necessary to move because of the pending post office construction and he moved the house to a corner of Second and Hazel Sts.

Mr. Edwards bought the old gun from the late Ed Lee of near Blevins, whose father had purchased it new from the gunsmith.

Continued Tax Rate Finds House Backing

WASHINGTON (U.P.) — Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) said today House leaders have agreed to go along with a plan to increase from a year to 15 months an extension of present rates on corporation and excise taxes.

In view of this, Byrd told a reporter, the Finance Committee heads undoubtedly will vote for the longer extension to July 1, 1958. The House already has voted an extension to April 1, 1958. Unless Congress acts, the business tax rates will drop April 1, cutting revenue three billion dollars a year.

Byrd said the longer extension would have the advantage of making the tax rates correspond with the government's fiscal year, which starts July 1, so that, if we ever can cut taxes, we would know just now it could affect the revenue.

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey told the Finance Committee he could have no objection to the 15-month extension provided it did not delay final action on the bill beyond March 31.

Byrd said House leaders had told him they would accept the change without a conference. This would mean the measure could be sent to the White House before the deadline if the Senate acts by the middle of next week.

Present corporation rates include a 3 per cent normal tax on earnings up to $25,000, and a 22 per cent surtax on all the rest for a total of 52 per cent.

Operation Separates Twin Girls

By FRANK CAREY

WASHINGTON (U.P.) Government scientists have told of a possibly historic operation in which they separated twin baby girls who had been joined at the forehead.

The Touse Appropriations Committee, which made public the story today, was told this was the first operation of its kind in which, at least until the present time, both twins have survived.

Dr. Pearce Bailey, director of the National Institute of Neurological Diseases and Blindness, gave the account of the intricate operation performed last December on Virginia Kate and Teresa Kay Banton of Mountain City, Tenn. The twins then were 4 months old.

Today, a little over three months after the operation, the twins were reported in good health. They still are at the clinical center of the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, Md., where the surgery was performed.

There have been a number of cases where Siamese twins, joined at the head, were separated only to have at least one of the twins die. One of the most famous of these cases involved the Blythe twins of Chicago. Rodney Dee Blythe survived, but Roger Lee, his twin brother, died after 24 days.

Bailey, testifying on appropriations requests of the Public Health Service, told the committee:

The only remedy — the only hope of salvation of the twins themselves — was surgical separation. They could not have lived, even in this age of antibiotics, linked together as they were.

The twins were first brought to NIH in October. For a little more than two months they were the subject of studies aimed at exploring the possibility of separating them and at finding out what brought about the abnormality.

Homeowners Alerted to Spring Rackets

B. N. Holt, Manager of the Hope Chamber of Commerce, alerted residents of Hope today against Spring Rackets which plague homeowners.

Citing a bulletin from the National Better Business Bureau, with which the Chamber is affiliated, Mr. Holt stated that a small group of questionable operators take advantage of spring weather to perpetrate various schemes on the unsuspecting public.

These gyps who constitute only a small minority of the various trades and industries in which they engage, have long been a persistent source of public complaint.

Phony "tree surgeons," hawkers of fake "humus" or lawn dressings, bogus "termite experts" and fake "roofing experts" are types of itinerant swindlers who may approach the homeowners in the spring.

Homeowners should be on the alert for transient rooters, a well known ring of doorbells during the spring months. He parks his truck, complete with ladders and tar paper, outside the homeowner's gate. He states that he has just finished another job down the street and has some materials left over. He will be pleased to inspect the homeowner's roof and chimney. No charge, of course.

If he gets a green light, he will clamber atop the house, and come back down shaking his head mournfully. The roof, and/or chimney, he states, is in terrible shape. However, since he has his truck and spare materials right there, he will do the job for a small fraction of the usual price.

If the homeowner agrees, the roofer and his assistants will do an inferior job — at an exorbitant price. They may even damage a roof that needed no repair in the first place.

Citizens are also warned against offers of combination storm windows and doors at extremely low prices. A minority of unscrupulous firms in the field, use these offers as "bait" and then try to switch the homeowner to a more expensive job.

Conway Co. to Hire Appraisal Firm for Taxes

MORRISON — Employment of a firm of professional appraisers to determine the value of all property in Conway county as the basis for a 20 per cent tax assessment has been ordered by County Judge Edgar Gordon.

Judge Gordon appointed Dr. H. M. Mobley, A. J. Meadors, and R. W. Morgan Jr., to enter into negotiations for the employment of a firm of qualified professional appraisers. The court order followed a public hearing yesterday, attended by more than 300 citizens.

The judge announced he had received letters signed by approximately 300 persons asking for employment of an appraiser, and none taking the opposite view.

Labor Bureau Feels Bite of Budget Cutters

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (U.P.) — The House Appropriations Committee took another big strike today in its budget-cutting drive by recommending reductions of $114,926,700 in new funds requested for the Labor and Welfare departments and related agencies.

It urged the House to appropriate $2,081,277,681 for the fiscal year starting next July 1 instead of the 2,081,277,681 requested by President Eisenhower.

The major part of the cut was in funds for public assistance grants to states, for which the committee voted $79,400,000 below the amount requested, but 25 millions more than was appropriated for the current year.

The over — all cut of almost 4 per cent brought to about 800 million dollars reductions recommended by the committee this year in five annual appropriation bills involving presidential requests for about $13,400,000,000.

Bills involving request for about 60 billion dollars more still are in the House Appropriations Committee.

The money allotted in today's bill included $2,437,684,581 for the Health, Education and Welfare Department, a $44,430,000 cut; $304,306,300 for the Labor Department, a 20,311,700 cut; $9450 for the National Labor Relations Board, a $125,000 reduction; $1,295,000 for the National Mediation Board, no cut; 3,550,000 for the Mediation and Conciliation Service, a $60,000 cut; and the entire 5,000 requested for the Interstate Commerce Commission on the Potomac River Basin.

Largest item in the Labor Department budget was 262 million dollars for grants to states for unemployment compensation and employment service administration.

The National Institutes of Health, which operate within the Welfare Department, received the entire $220,183,000 requested.

For general expenses, the Social Security Administration was granted 130 millions, a reduction of only one million.

The Schultz car containing seven passengers, enroute home from a dance pavilion at nearby Benton, Minn., sheared off a power pole and plunged into a water-filled ditch. Schultz, apparently was killed by the crash. Haugen apparently was killed when he stepped out of the car into the water charged by the broken power line in it.

Im being shocked, somebody help me," a survivor quoted Haugen as saying.

The other six passengers stayed inside the car.

The car containing Duncan and Rolf drew up. The two youths, apparently unaware of the lethal current in the pool of water, reached into it to help. Both fell dead.

Highway patrolmen said two passengers in the back seat of the Duncan-Rolf car apparently owed their lives to the fact they couldn't get out of the car as fast. They are Roger Hopfenacker, 18, and Howard Ofken, 18, both of Fosson.

Then Clark Holdahl, 21, drove up in a third car, raced to the stricken auto before others could stop him, and met the same fate. The six youngsters tapped in the wrecked car then climbed to the top of it and leaped to dry ground and safety.

CHICAGO (U.P.) — Teen-age gang now are producing Chicago headlines of the same type the adult mobsters did in the past.

The headlines are over stories of crimes of violence — such as the recent slayings of a boy in a hammer attack and a man in a motel robbery.

There's no use buying our heads in the sand," comments Walter Devereux, chief investigator of the Chicago Crime Commission. This city is not safe to roam in and it's getting worse.

But the juvenile division of the Police Department says that, on the basis of the current rate, it doubts that the crime rate for 1957 will be much higher than 1956.

During 1956 there were 12,439 cases noted by the division. The statistics included: larceny of automobiles, 747; burglary, 614; robberies (mostly strong arm), 229.

The bulk of the others were in the minor class. The record shows that 4,845 of the complaints were handled by the police.

Differences Over Millwood Project Appear Settled

Centerville Plans a Singing Sunday

Centerville will hold a community singing service Sunday, March 24 at 2 p. m. Everyone is urged to attend by Syd Skinner, chairman.

It struck out of a pending bill a provision to require that the proposed Millwood Reservoir in Arkansas and seven upstream dams in the two states be started together.

Rep. Harris (D-Ark.) said he was highly gratified at the committee's action and added that, if the bill becomes law, the way would be clear for a start on the Millwood Reservoir.

The estimated cost of Millwood and the seven upstream reservoirs is $103,035,000.

When originally authorized Millwood was to have been a high dam. However, upstream groups in western Arkansas and eastern Oklahoma protested, saying Millwood should be made smaller and additional dams built upstream.

Last year Army engineers proposed to reduce the Millwood project by 25 per cent and to build seven upstream dams, three in Arkansas and four in Oklahoma. All dams would provide water supply storage and some would include power.

This proposal was approved by House and Senate committees but Harris and Sen. Kerr (D-Okl.) differed on which dam should be started first.

Harris said Millwood logically should be started first. However, Oklahoma groups apparently feared that if Millwood were built first it would attract the bulk of new industry seeking water supply and the upstream dams might not be built.

Kerr, backed in the bill, last year's provision that all seven would have to be started concurrently.

President Eisenhower subsequently vetoed the bill, so it came back to Congress this year. The Senate committee recently approved the bill virtually in the same form it passed last year but did knock out the Millwood provision.

Car Plunges Into Charged Water, 3 Electrocuted

MAHANOMEN, Minn. (U.P.) A fatally-charged pool of water, fed by a broken high tension electric line, killed three youngsters who raced to a wrecked car containing the bodies of two crash victims early today.

Six more teen-agers in the wrecked car escaped alive by climbing to the top of the auto and leaping over the deadly water to dry ground.

The accident occurred on U. S. Highway 59 one mile north of this tiny county seat and about 240 miles northwest of Minneapolis-St. Paul.

Killed were: William E. Schultz, 23, the driver of the one car that was wrecked, and one of his passengers, Donald Haugen, 21, both of Winger, Minn.

Marvin Duncan Jr., 18, and Orville Rolf, 18, both of Fosson, Minn., who leaped from the first car passing by the scene, in a fatal rescue try.

The three surviving witnesses were under sedatives for shock and minor injuries in Crookston hospitals, and a clear picture of the tragedy was not immediately available. From investigating highway patrolmen and other sources, however, this is apparently what happened:

The Schultz car containing seven passengers, enroute home from a dance pavilion at nearby Benton, Minn., sheared off a power pole and plunged into a water-filled ditch. Schultz, apparently was killed by the crash. Haugen apparently was killed when he stepped out of the car into the water charged by the broken power line in it.

Another Union Chief Must Reveal Records

By HAMILTON W. FARON

WASHINGTON (U.P.) — A second Teamsters Union official faced today the choice of giving senators his personal financial records or having them taken from him.

Senate rackets investigators said last night they will subpoena the records of Frank W. Brewster, West Coast Teamsters boss, unless he surrenders them voluntarily. Asked yesterday to produce the record, Brewster said he wanted to consult his lawyers first.

Brewster's boss, Union President Dave Beck, agreed yesterday to bring his own records before the Senate committee investigating labor-management activities. He was ordered to appear next Tuesday for preliminary questioning.

Beck notified the committee that I recognize the authority of the group to call him and that he would appear and bring with me the records... without prejudice to my rights under the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

While Beck agreed to produce his records, he did not say he would turn them over to the committee.

The hearing, now in its fourth week, started out with testimony linking Teamsters officials with vice operations in Portland. Witnesses said the officials tried to take over law enforcement in the city.

Arkansas Connected With Tavern Holdup

FADUCAH, Ky. (AP) — A 21-year-old Ft. Campbell soldier has been arrested by state police who charged he participated in a tavern holdup in which his companion was shot to death.

State Police Detective Hugh Page said Pfc. James Ed Clayton, Blytheville, Ark., was arrested last night at Ft. Campbell on a charge of aiding and abetting an armed robbery.

The other soldier, Pfc. Joe Smith, 21, was shot during the attempted robbery last night by James (Buster) Seay, operator of Seay's Tavern on U. S. Highway 45 about a mile south of London.

The detective quoted Clayton as saying he was waiting in a car while Smith was in the tavern. The soldier said he left after he heard shots and Smith failed to return.

Clayton told Page that he and Smith were partners in a laundry pick-up and delivery service they operated for other soldiers at Ft. Campbell.

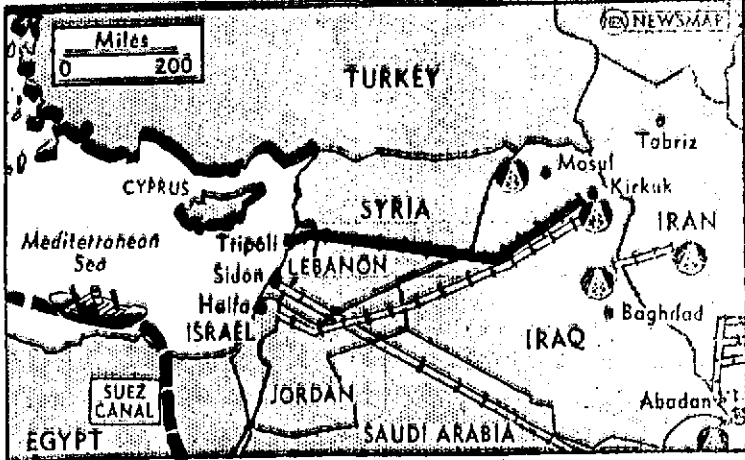

The average length of stay for travelers in Arkansas was 2 days, including those who did not stop overnight, according to a survey of overnighters, the size of parties, and the average expenditure in Arkansas was 22 per cent of 8.80 per person.

Syria said it may start repairs on three main pumping stations which its army blew up last November at the start of crisis. The line may only operate at half capacity of last year's 24-million-ton output because of the Syrian army's action. One anticipated result is to ease the pressure on U.S. oil companies in pushing tankers to oil-starved European countries.

Ike's Policy-Just Hope for the Best

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — Let's keep our shirts on and hope for the best.

That's neither a very positive nor a very imaginative policy, but it seems the only one the Eisenhower administration has had for four years in handling the Middle East.

Through it the United States has avoided a showdown with Egyptian President Nasser while he made threats, seized the Suez Canal, brought Egypt closer to Russia and inflamed Arab passions against the West.

There's no reason to think it won't continue to be American policy.

The United States has not yet taken a firm stand on Nasser any where along the line except for blocking Egyptian assets in the United States and imposing some minor economic restrictions.

The administration can give several reasons for its use of patience:

1. It wants to avoid any action which might precipitate war, to keep Arabs generally friendly to the West and away from Russia, and to achieve good ends by reasonableness, no matter how long it takes.

2. But this policy of patience and no firm stand so exasperated Britain, France and Israel, all three of which wanted action against Nasser, that they invaded Egypt. It is a policy which will turn out all right in the end if Nasser decides to play nice or if he makes himself obnoxious to his fellow Arabs and Egyptians by needless arrogance or dragging them into new crises.

There's no evidence at this time that either will happen. Nasser's doing all right. He has the support of Egyptians, Arabs and Asians. Since the invasion and closing of Suez he has been under perspective product.

A small minority of mail-order offers for flowers and bulbs have also proved questionable.

In the building and home repair field citizens are warned against the model home racket, in which unscrupulous promoters pretend to give "bargain prices" to persons who will let the builders show the completed job to other prospective customers. Commissions are some times offered to the homeowner for sales made in this way. Such offers have proved to be come-on devices used by unscrupulous building firms. Their actual charges are frequently excessive, the work is often inferior, and no commissions are forthcoming.

Warnings were also issued against itinerant hawkers of shoddy merchandise who take to the open road in the spring. Sellers of fake "Irish lace" and "British woolsens" are particularly active. These goods are frequently handled by a famous clan of itinerants known as the Williamson Gang.

In order to protect themselves against Spring Rackets, Mr. Holt recommended that homeowners should keep the following points in mind:

1. Beware the man who rings the doorbell and states that "he" just happens to be in the neighborhood with his gardening supplies or home repair equipment. Do not permit such persons to conduct any activity on the premises until information concerning the firm and its reliability has been obtained.

2. Check "amazing" bargain offers before any money is spent or any investment is made. If a mail-order offer is involved, secure information on the firm before remitting money.

3. Beware of salesmen who use the so called "model home pitch." It is a standard sales approach used by unscrupulous promoters.

4. Beware of "bait" advertising. Do not do business with any firm which knocks its own advertised goods and attempts to "switch" you to something else.

5. Secure price quotations from firms of established reputation on all landscaping improvements or home repairs.

6. Read and understand all written agreements and contracts that you are asked to sign. Do not sign until you are satisfied concerning all specifications, and until you are sure that you want to go ahead. Be sure that all promises are contained in writing in the contract.

7. Seek information from the Chamber of Commerce on persons or firms not known to you personally.

economic pressure but it isn't killing him.

All he had to do for months—after the British-French-Israeli invasion—was sit tight, keep his mouth shut, promise nothing, and watch the United States struggle to get its three friends out of Egypt.

Because Israel was the invader, the United States took the position it was in no position of demand or get guarantees against future aggression by Nasser. By this reasoning, the United States could make no demands on Nasser.

This left him free, once the Israelis cleared out, to resume where he had left off. He started pushing his luck at once. When the Israelis quit Gaza, which the U. N. had assigned to Egyptian administration, the United Nations troops took over there.

Right away Nasser argued the U. N. had no right to run Gaza. He sent in his own administrators but not troops & to do that, thus starting to push the U. N. forces up to the line which separates Gaza from Israel.

The U. N. troops are supposed to stay there indefinitely to prevent invasion across the line by Israelis or Egyptians. If Nasser feels strong enough to push his luck further, he may demand the U. N. troops get out of Gaza altogether.

He could do so. He has never publicly promised the troops could stay on Egyptian territory any longer than he was willing to permit them there. He may hesitate about this for a while. The U. N. forces are good protection for him.

The Israeli army tore his army to pieces in its autumn invasion. It could march back into Egypt. But the presence of 6,000 U. N. troops on the Gaza line should make Israel pause.

If Nasser sent his troops into Gaza, the Israelis might attack at once anyway.

The Israelis, perhaps anticipating the day when Egyptian troops do move back into Gaza, have protested excitedly against the Egyptian civilian occupation of the strip. They got a chilly reception from the United States.

The administration has never said — publicly — that Nasser shouldn't occupy Gaza again.

President Eisenhower has also been vague on what this country would do if Nasser now bars Israeli shipping from the Suez Canal and the Gulf of Aqaba. All he did was say, if it happened, other nations in seeking a solution.

When it comes to how close his ties to Russia really are and how much he has done and will do as the result of Russian prodding, perhaps with promises of Russian help if he gets in too deep.

Date Set for State All-Star Grid Game

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas high school all-star basketball game will be played Aug. 10 and the football contest the following day here, the executive committee of the Arkansas High School Coaches Association decided yesterday.

The basketball game probably will be played at Barton Coliseum. The football match will be at War Memorial Stadium.

A proposal to combine the football exhibition contest was voted down, Stadium Manager Allen Berry said the rejection of the doubleheader might mean that no pro game will be played here this year.

DOROTHY DIX

Give Heel the Works

Dear Dorothy Dix: For some time I've been going with a married man, the father of two children. People have told me that his wife is a good, honest, home-loving person and very attractive. I've often wondered why she never went anywhere with him and now I've been told that he refuses to take her out, is very miserable at home and won't give her money for clothes. He never refuses me anything.

I'm beginning to feel guilty. I wonder, if I break off with him, will he spend his money at home, or on someone else? I'm really sorry for his wife.

Dear Lorna: Regardless of what the man decides to do with his future, it will relieve your own guilt feelings to give him up. Certainly you have no respect for him. If you make this fact very evident to him, and thoroughly acquaint him with the attitude that other people have toward him, he may have a quick and rude awakening that will be reflected in his future domestic life.

Let him know that his lavish spending is the only reason you've continued to go with him, and that, actually, you feel nothing but contempt for him. This may induce him to spend money where it is most needed.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Is a wedding ordinarily sponsored by the parents of the bride?

Dear Olive: In this country, a wedding is the responsibility of the bride's parents alone. Many people, through ignorance or cupid-ity, try to con the bridegrooms parents into paying all or a major part of the expenses, but that's not according to Emily Post or the American tradition.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm a girl of 20 with a good office job. For two months I've been dating a boy 16 who quit school in the eighth grade and has no job. Mother says I'm wasting my time with him. What do you think?

Dear Butch: What possible interest could a girl of 20 have in cradle-snatching a child of 16? Not to mention the other drawbacks. Send your youthful suitor back to the nursery, and meet some men your own age.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm being married in the fall to a man I deeply love. The only drawback is that I hate housekeeping, and know I'll be no good at it. If I keep on working we could afford a maid, but my fiance doesn't like the idea.

Dear Maria: Your plans for the future are rosy, but full of flaws. First, maids aren't easy to come by — especially thoroughly competent ones with good dispositions. Second, Mother Nature has a trick of throwing interference in a well-planned game by the flutter of a stork's wings. So, there seems no escape from housework.

Between now and the fall, fortify yourself with the contents of a few homemaking books, which will make profitable and interesting reading. If you don't know of any, send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope with your request and I'll send you a list of them.

Futile to Hold Down Production — Benson

FRESNO, CALIF. (AP) Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson told a press conference yesterday it is futile to try to hold down production.

Emphasis should be on research for new markets and new products, he said. Our problem is to learn to live with abundance.

He advocated sale of farm products in any amounts available to Communist countries provided deals favorable to the United States are offered. He said, The prohibition against dealing with Red China and Russia should be eliminated.

The home of Gilbert Stuart, noted painter of portraits of George Washington, still stands at Wickford, Rhode Island.

Welfare Clients to Get More Money

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Old age assistance payments will rise an average of $10 per person monthly after July 1, Welfare Commissioner Carl Adams said yesterday. Whether additional funds will be available for the other welfare categories — blind persons, dependent children and the totally and permanently disabled — is not known yet, Adams said.

Old age assistance payments this month have averaged nearly $35.92 compared to 33 in March, 1956, Adams said, and the average grant food all welfare categories has risen from $35.80 to $38.15 in the past year.

Southwest Hotels Name New President

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Mrs. Joy Manning Scott, daughter of the late Mrs. H. Gandy Manning Cote, has been named to succeed her mother as president of Southwest Hotels, Inc.

The board of directors announced Mrs. Scott's election yesterday. She lives at Austin, Tex. Southwest Hotels hotels at Little Rock, Memphis, Kansas City and Hot Springs, Ark. The chain was founded by the late, Grady Manning.

Famed Historically — Historians will delight in knowing that five flags have flown over the thermal waters of the Arkansas Hot Springs. They include the Spanish unfurled by Hernando DeSoto when he and his followers visited the open hot pools in September, 1541, led by friendly Indians. Frances' fleur-de-lis was planted by LaSalle in 1682. During the War Between the States, the Stars and Bars of the Confederacy substituted briefly for "Old Glory." Arkansas attained statehood in 1836, and the official state flag was adopted by the General Assembly of 1913.

How To Converse

If you want to get a reputation as a charming conversationalist, just remember these six little words: "And then what did you do?" "And then what did you say?"

They'll do more to win you popularity than all the personal exploits you could tell others about yourself.

Most people are like the play-right who spent an hour telling his dinner companion all about how he had come to write his various plays, where he got his plots, his characters. After an hour of this he turned to his companion and said:

"But enough of this. You must tell me all about yourself. Tell me what do you think about my plays?"

Bayer Gets the Crowd in Florida Play

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — George Bayer swung his driver and a shiny white golf ball out through the bright sunlight, a faint speck against the blue sky. It settled on a palm — shaded green some 350 yards away.

The crowd watching the clinic was duly impressed by the man who probably is golf's greatest one-shot attraction. They crowded around for autographs and advice from the man who hits a ball farther than anybody in the world.

On the tee, Bayer is the greatest. Yet he never has won a pro tournament. Three times he has finished second, the latest at Mexico City shortly before the St. Petersburg Open.

Until tournament play starts, Bayer is the star. His longest measured drive carried 420 yards before it hit a man at Las Vegas, prompting a tape measure job. But he can't win.

Bayer makes a comfortable living for he gets a retainer from a golf club manufacturer. Still, he lives for the day when he no longer will be a curiosity but a genuine all-around golfing star.

I never practice the driving," he said later in the clubhouse. I work on the short irons, the chipping and putting. In this game a fellow has to be an egoist. I want to prove to myself and to a lot of people that I am capable of winning.

Hitting a long drive is great. It gives more an advantage to be able to average 225 yards to most pros. I get plenty of exhibition but you have to be able to make all the shots to prove you really can play. Then you'll get three times as many offers.

WOODEN NICKELS

Weather Keeps Track Team in Gymnasium

The Bobcat track team got outside for the first time this week because of weather condition of track, some 20 boys are out.

There are four letterman from last year: Nix, Titile, Fowler in the dashes; Jack Moran in field events.

Moran won the Discus Throw in the state meet last year and is hoping to better his mark this year.

Other boys that are out: Jerry Thurman, Tommy Polk, David Watkins, Lynn Montgomery, Don Sutton, John Thomas, Gary Don Formby, Jimmy Porterfield in the field events, and Jerry Franks and Jimmy Mayo who specialize in the 880 dash. Weeks, Bill Freeman, Jimmy Chambliss run the dashes.

Five boys from the team that won the Junior High state meet last year should help: Graves, Booth, and Hair in the dashes; Foster in the High Jump and Discus, Delton Hatfield in the pole vault and 440.

Missing from that group of boys is Ross Stone who won the 50, 100, and 220 and anchored the relays in the state meet last year.

Schedule: March 29 — Nashville, April 4 — Camden, April 11 — Nashville, April 19 — Texarkana, April 26 — Camden, May 4 — District Meet, May 11 — State Meet.

All of our meets have to be away because we don't have a good track.

Six Seasoned
Runners in Spa
Feature Today

HOT SPRINGS (AP) — Six seasoned middle distance runners were scheduled to compete over the mile and 70-yard route in the featured $2,000 Arkansas Traveler Purse at Oaklawn Park today.

J. H. Thatchers Revue will be shooting for his second victory of the meeting.

Revelment defeated High Authority, Dr. Joe Kay, Prince Eric and others at 6 furlongs on a heavy track early in the season. In his next effort, he was third in High Authority and Don Melody over a like distance.

All of the others in the field except Revelment carried 112 pounds. He was assigned an impost of 110.

Another prominent contender was Marion Van Berg's Doc Moorman, who was third in a sprint here earlier, and figures to improve at the distance.

Doc Moorman started 16 times last year and won eight races, including a handicap at Denver's Centennial Park, and was second in another handicap.

In his only start here, he finished behind Big Power and Ban Sen over 6 furlongs.

Others entered were Colonel Velvet, Scarlet Flush, Capt. Kim and Bobtag.

The daily double was the big news yesterday at Oaklawn. Eighteen $2 ticket holders each won $254 in a daily double composed of Regis and Admiral Teddy. Track officials said the daily double was the fourth highest in Oaklawn history.

Backers of Regis, owned by Olen Sledge, collected $78.20, 24-20 and $11.40. Admiral Teddy, the Dan Abbott entry, paid $6.20, $24.40 and 13.

The largest daily double in track history is $6,002.80, paid by Peggy Torch and Miss Firefly on March 17, 1936.

Another major event yesterday was a new track record set by Oil Sweep for the second time within a week. Oil Sweep on the featured $4,000 Ballerina for 2-year-old fillies. She covered the 4 furlongs in 1:45 3-5, clipping a fifth of a second off the record she set here March 14.

An odds-on favorite, Oil Sweep returned $3, 36 and $2.80. A crowd of 8,311 bet 561,459.

Baseball to Battle Ruling
as Business

BELLEFAIR, Fla. (AP) — The men who rule baseball get together behind closed doors tomorrow to decide a line of policy against pending legislation which may define their game as a business and not a sport.

Commissioner Ford Frick called the extraordinary session at his spring headquarters earlier in the week. All 16 major league clubs will be represented along with American League President Will Harridge, National League President Warren Giles and Minor League President George Trautman.

No one was ready to comment on what action baseball may take, but Frick said he has the owners. We'll just sit down with our lawyers and thrash it out.

Baseball, twice previously ruled a sport by the Supreme Court and not subject to antitrust laws, at present is confronted by Rep. Celler (D-N.Y.), chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, and Rep. Hillings R-Calif., generally are defined as unfavorable to baseball.

The third, introduced by Re. Keating (R-N.Y.), would set up a code of fair play for sports, joining baseball, pro football and basketball in one category, rather than declaring them subject to monopoly laws.

The present controversy was set off with the Supreme Court's recent decision appraising pro football as a business.

Chicago Team Wins Golden Gloves Title

CHICAGO (UP) — Joe Shaw and Tommy Reynolds, two Golden Gloves champions from St. Louis, had added luster for their reputations today.

They sparked the Chicago Golden Gloves team to the most one-sided victory in history over New York in the 30th annual inter-city matches, each scoring technical knockout wins in the eight light program.

The first four matches, including the victories by both Reynolds and Shaw, were on the national television network.

Chicago took the team title, 7-1, with New York's only victory going to flyweight Albert Pell, the 1936 champion at 118 pounds who also won the NAAU crown last year. Pell punched out a decision over Pat Moore, one of two non-champions who fought for Chicago.

Shaw floored New Yorker Jimmy Chavis twice and the referee stopped the bout at 1:10 of the first round.

Reynolds took a TKO win at 1:21 of the third round from Tommy Smith in the 118 pound bout.

Coaches for
All-Star Game
Selected

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Coach Bob Bradbury of Jonesboro High today was announced as the head coach for the East team in the annual Arkansas high school basketball game.

The Arkansas Athletic Association announced yesterday that coach of the West team will be Horace Broom, mentor at Emergency High for the past nine years.

Assistant coaches for the West team in the all-star football game were announced by Head Coach Bill Cromwell of Harrison.

The assistants are Carl Sorrells of Atkins, District 4B; Dwight Jones of Nashville, District 7A; Joe Ensminger of Hot Springs, Big Eight; and Raymond Bright of Conway, District 5AA.

Coach Wilson Mathews of Little Rock, head of the East squad, previously had announced his assistants: Ed Teeter of Dumas, Jim DeVasier of Forrest City, Ben Jones of Searcy, and Wallace Jackson of Osceola.

Bradbury coached for five years at Marion before coming to Jonesboro in 1935. A Navy veteran, he participated in football, basketball and track at Hendrix College and graduated in 1930 with a major in physical education and a minor in social science.

While coaching at Marion, he attended Memphis State and completed work on his masters degree in 1933.

Bradbury's 1935-36 Jonesboro team won the Class A state championship by defeating North Little Rock and Little Rock. Jonesboro reached the quarter-finals during the 1937 Class A tourney before bowing to Rogers, which won the title.

Broom has turned out nine district champions—six girls and three boys—and his 1933 girls team was state runnerup.

During the past three years the Emerson boys have won eight tournaments, finished second three times and third once. Their 3-year record is 92 victories against only 15 defeats.

WOODEN NICKELS
WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — Wooden nickels soon will be legal tender in Wichita County. The wooden coins will be passed out as part of the county's diamond jubilee celebration May 1-15.

Cuban Looking Mighty Fine to Brooklyn

By JOHN CHANDLER
Of The Associated Press

Brooklyn Manager Walt Alston whether they call him the Great Gutierrez or the Mighty Valdes. All Alston knows is that the skinny Cuban with a smoking fast ball may be around Flatbush a lot longer than most people thought.

Rene Gutierrez Valdes, who had a 22-8 record with Portland of the Pacific Coast League last season, displayed more of his classy hurling yesterday as the Dodgers edged the St. Louis Cardinals 2-1 in an 11-inning exhibition game at Vero Beach, Fla.

Rene added three more hitless and scoreless innings in his second appearance as a Dodger. He walked two Cardinals, and another reached base on an error, but none got past first.

In his Brooklyn debut Sunday, Valdes came to the mound with the bases loaded and none out in the eighth the Detroit Tigers, five of the Tigers popped up and the sixth bounced back to the box as Valdes preserved a 3-2 Dodger victory.

Valdes is known in Latin America as the Great Gutierrez, which is his father's name. At Portland it was the mighty Valdes, his mother's maiden name.

Valdes is signed to a contract with Los Angeles, Brooklyn's new Coast League farm club, but if he keeps up this kind of pitching he could move to Ebbets Field.

Elsewhere:
The Detroit Tigers, smarting under criticism of Manager Jack Tighe after losing 8 of 10 exhibition games, clubbed four Pittsburgh pitchers for 11 hits, including a two-run homer by Charley Lau, to defeat the Pirates 8-4.

Ed Bouchee cracked a three-run homer and Bob Bowman got a solo round-tripper to provide the punch as the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Washington Senators 6-4.

Don Larsen of the New York Yankees made his first appearance since his World Series perfect game and was battered soundly by the Cincinnati Redlegs, who won 20-6. He pitched three innings, gave up a homer to George Crowe, two triples, two doubles, a single and five runs. All told the Redlegs collected 25 hits.

Two walks with the bases loaded gave the Milwaukee Braves a pair of runs in their 3-2 verdict over the Kansas City Athletics. Bob Cerv homered for the A's.

The Boston Red Sox defeated the Chicago White Sox 9-4, scoring five times in the fourth inning.

U. S. Olympic Star to Wed Czech Star

LONDON (UP) — Communist Czechoslovakia gave its blessing today for American Olympic star Harold Connolly to wed pretty Olga Fikolova, the Czech discus champion he met and wooed at the Melbourne Olympics.

The U. S. Embassy in Prague reported by telephone that Connolly got the news of official permission after a hurried flight across the Iron Curtain to his fiancée's side. He had been waiting in Vienna for the Czechs to act on a personal appeal to Czech President Antonin Zapotocky.

The embassy said Connolly will marry brown-eyed, 24-year-old Olga in Prague next Wednesday and probably fly home to Boston the same night.

Connolly was not immediately available for comment. He's with Olga, an official explained.

Connolly is the current Olympic hammer throw champion. Olga is the women's Olympic discus champion. They met last fall at the Olympic games in Melbourne, Australia, and fell in love at once.

They kept their love a secret until Connolly could return to Czechoslovakia last month, ostensibly on an official sports tour. There, he popped the question all over again to the Czech government, which must give permission for Czech citizens to marry foreigners. Yesterday he got the affirmative answer after three weeks of suspense. As a matter of fact, he had almost given up hope as he sat out the hours in Vienna, where he went after leaving Prague when his Czech visa ran out more than a week ago.

Wayland Has Berth in the Semifinals

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (UP) — The favored Wayland Tex. College Queens established a record of 102 consecutive victories here last night in gaining a berth in the semifinals of the Women's National AAU basketball tournament.

Wayland's streak, which bettered the previous mark of 101 victories for a women's AAU team set in 1931-32 by Winston-Salem, N. C., began on Feb. 26, 1934.

The Queens downed Clarendon (Tex.) Junior College 32-24 in the quarterfinal round of the championship bracket. They meet Kansas City Midland in the second game of the semifinal round at 9:30 p.m. (CST) tonight.

Midland defeated Omaha 27-20. In other quarterfinal games, Iowa Wesleyan and Nashville Milwaukee 53-38 and Nashville Owsen 58-41.

Iowa Wesleyan and Nashville play in the first semifinal game.

beat them," said Temple Coach Harry Litwack. But well be on the floor.

That should be enough for any one who watched the slick, poised Owls from Philadelphia whip Dayton 77-68 Tuesday. It was a court wizard in junior sophomore, Guy Rodgers, who inspired teammates Jay Norman and Mel Brodsky to great heights. They do not figure to collapse as Xavier did before a Bradley all-court press.

In addition, as Litwack pointed out, our boys like to play in the Garden. Temple has lost only one game in the Garden in five years and that by one point to Ohio State in the Holiday Festival last December.

Memphis State, led by little Jack Butcher, a 5-9 giant killer upset Utah and Manhattan and figures to show steady improvement against the Bonnies.

A St. Bonaventure did against Cincinnati and Seattle, the Tigers from Memphis came from behind in each game. They have a strong bench and do not figure to become rattled.

Tonight's winners meet Saturday afternoon for the championship. Tonight's losers play for third place.

Road Program Hinges on Meet Today

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — In an effort to unravel the knot that strangled a 164-million-dollar highway appropriations bill, legislators and the Highway Commission met here today.

The amendment that touched off a Senate-House dispute and led to adjournment without action on the highway bill was under close scrutiny.

Sponsored by Rep. Ode Maddox of Montgomery County, the amendment states that employees required to travel outside the county of their residence on a job shall receive mileage at the rate established by state travel regulations.

Highway Director Herbert Eldridge asked in effect yesterday: Exactly what does the amendment mean?

For instance, would mileage have to be paid to workers who live in one county by choice but work in another county? Wouldn't he be paid only to workers whose jobs required them to move? How much would it cost the Highway Department?

Highway commissioners and the Joint Budget Committee tackled these questions this afternoon, searching for agreement on specific cases.

Gov. Orval Faubus has said that if agreement is reached today, he probably will call a special session of the Legislature Monday or Tuesday.

Presumably the Legislature would meet only to pass the highway bill.

Under law the special session cannot last more than three days for items specified by the governor. Legislators can vote an extension but would then have to serve without pay.

During 1956 travel-serving businesses in Arkansas received $270 more than last year and 68 percent more than in 1948.

station adjustment'—such things as quarreling, ringing doorbells and annoying the neighbors that got no farther than an area police station.

But there have been a number of instances of teenage gang action. Such as these: An elderly shoe repair man and five youths were viciously attacked by a gang of some 30 toughs, armed with bottles and knives, apparently without provocation. The victims were hospitalized.

Two gangs wrecked a restaurant in an outbreak of rivalry and when thrown out, later returned, fired a bullet through a window and wounded an innocent customer.

A gang preyed on high school pupils extorting 50 cents to $2 weekly as protection money.

Another gang specialized in stealing automobile tires and during a one-year period stole $8,000 worth of tires besides committing five other burglaries.

Thirteen white toughs are reportedly under indictment for murder in the hammer slaying of Alvin Palmer, a Negro teenager, who was attacked as he stood at a South Side bus stop.

Four other teenagers have been indicted for murder in the fatal shooting of Charles Stryhny, 48, during a robbery of his suburban Alsip motel.

And so the reports go, day after day.

Family Court officers report that since the first of the year they have been investigating an average of 374 juvenile crimes a month.

Relatively new to the teenage crime picture is the rising role of delinquent girls. Family court officers report that a six-year survey shows an increase of 89 per cent among the number of girls involved in juvenile crimes, compared with an increase of 50 per cent for boys.

A crime official recently said, "The only people you can blame are their parents."

Another Dog Race Track Considered

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A Colorado greyhound race track owner is exploring the possibility of establishing a dog track here, the chairman of the Arkansas Racing Commission revealed today.

Dr. Ed Dunaway of Conway said that Fred Whitehead of the Cloverleaf Track near Denver, Colo., had appeared before the commission last Saturday.

He didn't stay but a few minutes, Dr. Dunaway said. He just said he wanted the commission to know he was exploring the possibilities of establishing such a track in Pulaski County.

We didn't even make a record of his name. From my memory—and it is only that—I believe he said his name was Fred Whitehead and he owns the Cloverleaf track in Colorado.

Dr. Dunaway said that commission members advised the man that a new greyhound racing law which provides for a local option election would go into effect in July and that any plans to build a dog racing track would have to

Better Deal for Rice Farmers Asked

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark) wants a better deal for rice producers, who he claims are treated unfairly under Commodity Credit Corp. regulations.

Producers of other grains, Fulbright said yesterday in a letter to Chairman Ellender (D-La.) of the Senate Agriculture Committee, receive a track loading payment when grain under loan agreement is delivered to the CCC.

Rice producers get no such payment, Fulbright said, and he has been unable to find out the reason for what he called discrimination.

Tornado Hits Houma, La. One Injured

HOUMA, La. (AP) — A tornado early today destroyed two homes and injured a baby girl at Bourg, about 10 miles southeast of here. Two other houses were badly damaged.

The high winds accompanied rains and thunderstorms which blanketed the area in southeast Louisiana as a result of coastal squalls.

The office of Sheriff A. P. Prejean said deputies were rushed into the area to render aid.

The year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Detrievaux, received a head cut when the Detrievaux home crumbled.

Detrievaux said he and his family was sleeping when I heard a noise. I guess you'd call it a roar, and I said to my wife to get the kids and let's move to another room.

Then, the house started to crumble and we climbed out on the roof, which was only about six feet off the ground, he said. We were lucky. The baby isn't hurt too much.

Detrievaux said a house next to his was demolished. Chief Dep. C. P. Rozands said all houses involved were occupied. I don't see how they were not killed, he said.

He said telephone poles and trees were blown down. High winds also damaged nearby settlements of Montegut and Little Caillou, he said, but no casualties were reported.

Heavy rain and strong winds were reported over the rest of the state.

Survey Reveals U. S. Return on Money

By RELMAN MORIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is getting a good return on the billions spent for military help to non-Communist nations, three survey groups reported today.

However, the costs of the program are more likely to go up than down, said the report made public by a special Senate committee studying U. S. foreign aid. And there may have to be an increase in military manpower, it said.

The three groups evaluated the results of the military aid program in similar terms:

A valuable deterrent to Communist expansion. To date, the investment of the United States in military aid programs has served materially to stabilize the free world and discourage aggression.

The report was composed of findings by Columbia University's Institute of War and Peace Studies and by the Systems Analysis Corp. of Washington.

A five-man panel reviewed and commented on their findings. The panel was composed of Marx Leva, former assistant secretary of defense; S. L. A. Marshall, military commentator for the Detroit News; and three retired officers, Adam Robert B. Carney, Gen. Joseph T. McNamery and Maj. Gen. Gerald Higgins.

Since 1949, the report said, Congress has appropriated about 24 billion dollars for military aid, of which 16 billion has been sent.

Military aid now accounts for some 62 per cent of all foreign aid funds. The rest goes mainly for economic aid and technical assistance.

It is not always appreciated that about four fifths of military assistance funds are spent in the United States, the report said.

From the start of the program through 1955, it said, the United States delivered to allies and other countries about 40,000 tanks and combat vehicles, 1,200 naval craft, 40,000 pieces of artillery, 7 aircraft two million small arms and automatic weapons, and unspecified billions of rounds of ammunition.

This armament went—and is still going—to 36 nations, the survey showed. It said that the North Atlantic Treaty Organization nations assume about 85 per cent of their own defense costs.

The United States and Canada furnished funds for the remainder. Reviewing results of the program, the reports stressed strengthening of Western Europe. One cited Iran specifically as a nation where U. S. defense assistance can be rightfully credited with having substantially contributed to saving the country from Communist domination.

It is possible, another passage said, that Communist China has very large forces tied down by the presence of strong Nationalist Chinese and South Korean forces—both bolstered by U. S. aid.

by settlements of Montegut and Little Caillou, he said, but no casualties were reported. Heavy rain and strong winds were reported over the rest of the state.

The weather bureau at Shreveport said guests up to 38 miles an hour were registered.

Once-Doomed Dog Co-Stars in a Movie

HOLLYWOOD — A little unkempt dog with a big kosher appetite only days removed from execution in a dog pound today is co-starring in a movie with Frank Sinatra, Kim Novak and Rita Hayworth.

It's Hollywood's greatest Cinderella story since Marilyn Monroe and the most unique talent search since Scarlet O'Hara.

Snuffy, a cairn terrier, ate himself into a 500-a-week contract to co-star with the famous trio in the upcoming movie version of "Pal Joey."

The script calls for a dog to play Sinatra's pet and eat the same type of kosher food that he does.

Sinatra, director George Sidney and producer Fred Kohlmar were judges at a canine audition held last night at N. A. I.'s Elite Koshers Delicatessen in Beverly Hills.

Nine dogs made the finals of the audition, which stems from an Associated Press story of a few weeks ago. Soon after the story appeared, more than 5,000 letters, plus hundreds of phone calls from such places as New York, Tokyo, London, Paris and South America deluged Columbia Pictures.

A Beverly Hills dog merely sniffed at the audition plate of ice cream and cheese and bagels.

I can't understand it, its own owner moaned. He just loved the food over at Romanoffs.

A huge St. Bernard, complete with brandy keg around its neck, was one entrant. Sinatra shook his head.

"We can have no dogs bigger than the star,"

An early favorite in the judging was a Bassett hound with the unusual name of Harry Bernstein. The winner, with a straight face, old Sinatra: I think you know his father, Marvin Cohen.

Sinatra did a double take: You mean someone actually named a dog Marvin Cohen?

Harry ate anything, including a piece of Sinatra's finger.

I think he overacts, the thin singer quipped.

Finally, came little Snuffy, with his little ears and big eyes. He devoured the bagels and lox like the Russians were in nearby Pomona.

Bert Morse, a chief inspector for the Los Angeles city dog pound, from Arcadia, Calif., is Snuffy's owner. He said he had read of the search for a bagel beagle and decided to enter Snuffy. The dog, already nine days in the pound, would have been put to sleep the next day.

Now he is a movie star with a cast that even Rin Tin Tin or Lassie never rated.

As flesh bulbs popped from a small army of photographers Snuffy was crowned with a giant sized Bagel - a sort of albino doughnut.

It was Hollywood at its publicity best.

Legal Battle Is Proving Costly

HARLAN, Ky. (AP) — Nearly a month of court action and the investment of at least $113 has netted two men here 3.50 each.

The legal battle began last month when Byrd Hensley and Kelsey Meadows claimed ownership of a female blue tick hound. Each showed up in Harlan Circuit Court with five witnesses to back his case.

Calling it a practical draw, Judge Edward G. Hill ordered the hound sold at auction and the money split between the two men.

The auction was held yesterday and the hound was sold to C. W. Pennington, Craywood Ky., the highest bidder, for $7.

Meadows and Hensley will split the $7. Their total court costs were $13. Estimated attorney fees were $50 each, leaving them $106 in the hole.

Teacher's Paddling of Boys Approved

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Personnel Committee of the nearby Chartiers Valley Joint School District upheld a teacher who paddled three 7th and 8th grade boys.

The teacher, Robert F. Koby, had been accused of paddling one lad so severely he required medical treatment. The School Board previously paid $5 for a doctor's fee.

Koby said he paddled the boys because of their rowdy conduct on school buses. After a closed meeting last night, the Personnel Committee issued this statement: The discipline administered in this particular instance was, in the opinion of this committee, within the authority granted the teacher by law and by policy of the School Board.

Nurse Tells of Warning in Doctor's Trial

By ROBERT MUSEL

LONDON. (UP) — A crown witness admitted in court today that another prosecution witness warned her only an hour earlier not to reveal that drugs prescribed by Dr. John Bodkin Adams for a patient he is charged with murdering were kept in an unlocked drawer.

Nurse Annie Mason - Ellis reluctantly admitted under cross-examination that another nurse warned her, don't you say that or you will get me into trouble.

The testimony was drawn from the nurse by Chief Defense Counsel Geoffrey Lawrence after the witness vainly appealed to the bench for permission to ignore the question.

Lawrence did not pursue this revelation, but it was believed he established the groundwork he wanted for an attempt to prove that this might explain why Adams had to prescribe large quantities of drugs for the alleged victim, 81-year-old Mrs. Edith Alice Morrell.

Lawrence also attacked another point of the crown's case against the bachelor physician while Miss Mason - Ellis was still on the stand.

This was the prosecution contention that Adams used to keep from nurses the formula of the injection he personally gave to Mrs. Morrell. The crown contends he kept it secret because he was injecting large quantities of narcotics to control the mind of the widow and then to kill her after she named him in her will.

Miss Mason - Ellis admitted that on March 16, 1950 she recorded that Adams gave the patient an injection of a vitamin preparation called cytamin and that a previous nurse recorded similar injections by the doctor.

Lawrence opened the third day of the trial by asking Miss Mason - Ellis about a conversation she allegedly had with two other nurses in the case while riding to London from Eastbourne this morning in the same train compartment.

All three nurses had attended Mrs. Edith Alice Morrell whose death in her Eastbourne mansion in 1950 is alleged by the crown to have been caused by overdoses of narcotics administered by Adams so he could benefit from her will.

Lawrence drew from the nurses the admission they had discussed the case in the courtroom corridors although they had been warned by Detective Superintendent Herbert Hannam.

Miss Mason - Ellis said the subject of that conversation was the nurses' records of the treatment of Mrs. Morrell which the defense produced in a surprise move yesterday. Lawrence, using the books, forced Nurse Helen Slonach to admit her memory was faulty on important evidence.

Despite the warning from Hannam the nurses discussed the case on their way home to Eastbourne last night and on their way back today.

Youth Answers First Question on Science

NEW YORK (UP) — A 10-year-old science expert correctly answered the first of three questions leading to a $128,000 prize last night on Robert Strom, of the Bronx, CBS-TV's The $64,000 Question.

Robert Strom, of the Bronx, N. Y., who won $64,000 on the show last week is now on his way to a possible goal of 256,000, if he answers the other two questions correctly.

U. S. N. Cmdr. Edward Peary Stafford of Washington, correctly answered a 16,000 question in his American Literature category.

Peary answered four questions pertaining to F. Scott Fitzgerald's novels.

Peary will return next week to possibly try for 32,000 and Robert for the $32,000 level of his three part prize.

On Do You Trust Your Wife? (CBS-TV) Erik and Helena Gude of Palos Verdes, Calif., won their 22nd consecutive trust fund contest bringing their total winnings to $115,600.

The contestants were asked to name as many as possible in the allotted 20 seconds, the names of the 10 largest lakes in the world, excluding the Caspian sea.

The win gave the Gudes winnings which they of weekly $100 checks for the next 22 years, assured them of a chance to defend their title and possibly win another $200 next week.

High Flying Nixon Didn't See a Lion

By GRANT DILLMAN

ENROUTE WITH NIXON. (UP) Vice President Richard M. Nixon leaves Africa without even seeing a lion or elephant.

Nixon got within about 3,000 feet of some of Africa's best game land while flying from Entebbe, Uganda, to Addis Ababa. That was how high his plane flew over the area.

The vice president's only brush with African wild life was a hasty look at a 12-foot python captured at the Bomi Hills iron mine in Liberia about a week before he visited there.

Newsman have not been able to stay as close to Nixon in Africa as they did during his 1953 Asian tour. Then only three press association men went along as official members of the party. As a result they flew with Nixon and were cut in an official dinner.

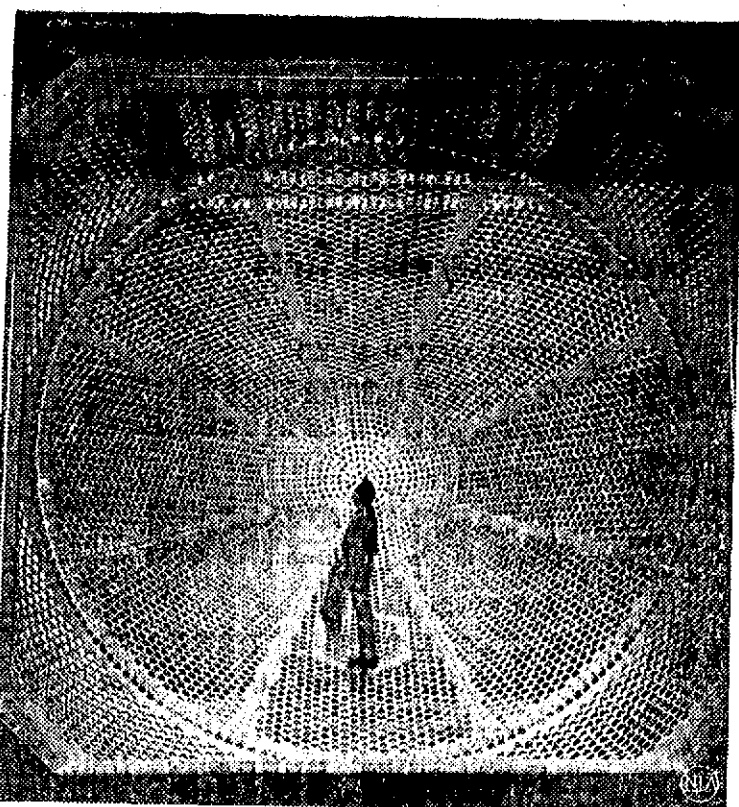

In Africa the newsmen flew in their own plane. Members of the press group—24, not counting U.S. Information Agency men—were excluded from official dinners in Africa, although they invariably were invited to receptions.

Comedian Dany Kay's observation that children are the same all over the world was borne out by the Nixon trip. The same happy childish faces were seen in Morocco, Ghana, Liberia, Uganda and Ethiopia. And the Vice President and Mrs. Nixon apparently enjoyed greeting their small fry admirers.

Air Force Maj. James D. Hughes, press escort officer, was pressed into emergency service as medical officer when Col. Francis W. Pruitt was forced to return to Washington by his wife's illness. Hughes, who had taken a good natured beating from the newsmen seemed to enjoy his role as pill dispenser. Particularly nasty ones.

Nixon's handshaking technique, which he evolved in Asia, appears to have had the same magic in Africa. Nixon was able to do relatively little of this in where he was only one of scores of dignitaries. But local officials report this person-to-person approach went over with a bang in the other nations visited by the vice president.

Nixon, although suffering from a cold during most of the trip, braved rain twice rather than disappoint crowds waiting to greet him. He got a soaking at the giant Nouasseur Air Base in Morocco where he greeted children of American personnel. He repeated his performance twice in Ethiopia enroute to Haile Selassie's palace.

The vice president wanted desperately to see Dr. Albert Schweitzer, famed humanitarian, physician and philosopher. At one point the visit was so definite that Uganda officials were notified Nixon would stop there only five hours instead of two days. They hastily cancelled their elaborate plans for handling the party, including hotel reservations, taxicab hire and catering services. Just as they finished the job visit was off because of scheduled Wearily they reinstated the original plans.

CLUBS

Baker

The Baker Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. T. B. Fenwick, Sr. The meeting was opened with the group singing "America." Mrs. Fenwick gave the devotional and voiced the prayer.

The minutes were read and approved. Each member brought clothes to be sent to the children at the State Sanatorium, and made arrangements for them to be mailed to them.

The club appointed a committee with Mrs. Merlin Cox as chairman to make plans for a Mother's Day party sometime during the month of May.

Mrs. O. F. Lloyd gave an interesting demonstration on how make-up should be applied.

U. S. Soldier, Jap Girl Get Death Penalty

SENDAI, Japan (UP)—An American soldier and his Japanese girl friend today were sentenced to death by a Japanese court for robbing and killing a Japanese woman, then setting her home afire to hide their crime.

The death penalty was the first imposed on an American by Japanese authorities since the end of World War II.

Pvt. Orvis L. C. Boone, 24-year-old Galveston, Tex., Negro, and Shegeko Sasaki were sentenced by Dist. Judge Mizuo Yamada to be hanged for the triple crime last Sept. 4 in Sendai. The prosecution had asked only for life imprisonment.

The conviction can be appealed first to Japan's appeal court and later to the Supreme Court.

Boone already is under an Army court-martial life sentence for the bludgeoning slaying of U. S. Army Specialist Edward K. Maunakea,

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Ernest Cobb April 4, at 1:30.

Japanese courts since 1953 have tried American service personnel for offenses committed off their bases and while on duty. American civilians have been tried by Japanese courts for violations of Japanese laws since April 28, 1953, effective date of the San Francisco Peace Treaty.

BIRD DID IT

ONEONTA, N. Y. (UP)—A little bird knocked the community television antenna out of service yesterday for the second time in a year. Just as happened a year ago, a sparrow living in an antenna box caused a short circuit, delaying service to 1,200 subscribers for a half-hour.

COMPARE

See how the extra value in Chilean Soda makes an extra good crop of corn. Chilean is a natural combination of nitrate nitrogen, sodium and minor elements.

and you'll choose CHILEAN NITRATE OF SODA

One hundred years of consistently satisfactory experience with Chilean Nitrate of Soda have demonstrated that there is nothing to compare with it for side-dressing corn, cotton and other summer crops. It is a rare, natural combination of nitrate nitrogen, sodium and minor elements. Where the soil is too acid; where potash is deficient or where the supply of available phosphate is low; where the crop needs quick help; or where one or more of the minor elements is lacking, Natural Chilean Soda has no equal among nitrogen fertilizers.

The side-dressing effectiveness of any nitrogen fertilizer depends very largely on its content of nitrate nitrogen. The nitrogen content of Chilean Soda is 100 per cent nitrate nitrogen and this, together with its rich sodium content and minor elements, accounts for its remarkable efficiency and consistently superior performance in the field.

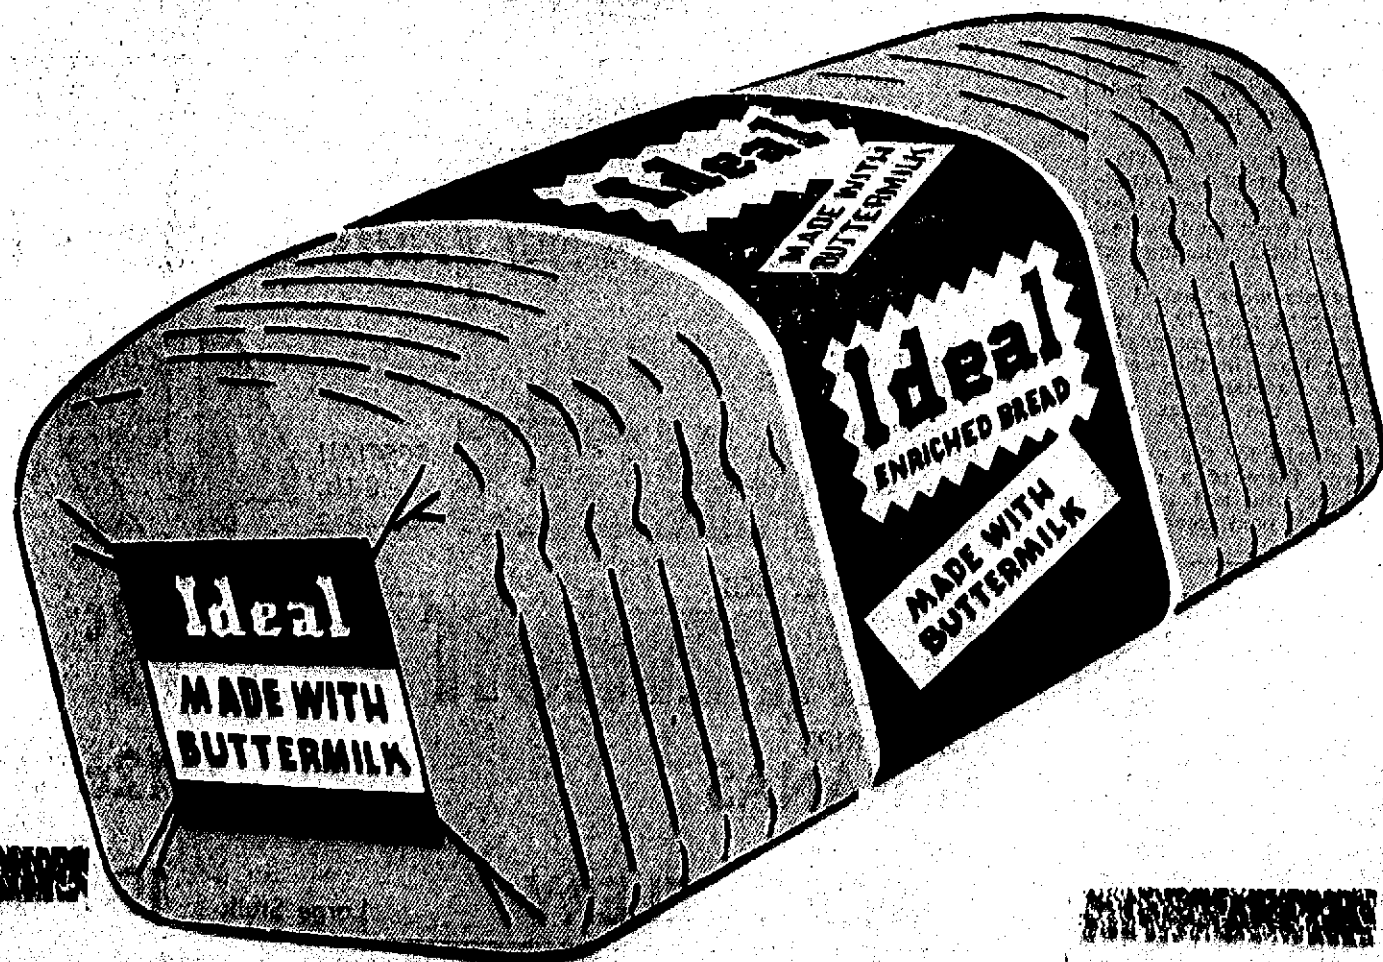

Sodium adds a great deal of extra value to the product. It destroys soil acidity, substitutes for potash and calcium when necessary, increases the supply of available phosphate, and helps the plant gain the utmost benefit from the nitrogen. In addition, Chilean Soda contains small amounts of needed minor elements which help to protect against hidden plant-food deficiencies.

If you have any question about your nitrogen side-dressing for corn, we urge you to use Chilean Nitrate, if only in a small way to begin with, so that you can see the difference for yourself. We are confident you'll find it the most economical and satisfactory nitrate nitrogen fertilizer you ever used for side-dressing your crops.
